CONCORD GRIDDERS CONDUCT PRE-REGISTRATION

The Concord Little League Association is conducting a pre-registration for the upcoming 1975 football season to be held in the Concord Elementary School's gymnasium from 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. on May 30 and from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon on May 31.

A fee of $5.00 will be collected for every child registrating to participate in the football program.

Acteens To Sponsor Car Wash

The Acteens of Hollywood Baptist Church will have a car wash on Saturday, May 31, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Farmers National Bank, Triangle Plaza Branch. The charge will be $1.50 to wash the outside of your car and 50c extra to clean the inside.

Come have your car washed and help send an Acteen to camp.

Mrs. John M. Fedison, Mrs. Richard D. Robinson, and Mrs. Robert W. Carter represented the Appomattox Junior Woman's Club at the Virginia Federation of Woman's Clubs held in Richmond. Several awards were brought home, including a first place award in Bicentennial and American Heritage which is eligible for a National Award at the GFWC Convention in June.

Jr. Club Women Attend Convention

The Appomattox Junior Women's Club was represented by three club members at the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs held April 22-24 at the John Marshall Hotel in Richmond. Mrs. John M. Fedison, first vice-president, attended as representative of the club president, Mrs. James A. Nolen; Mrs. Richard D. Robinson, co-chairman of Bicentennial and American Heritage, attended as the elected Club Delegate; and Mrs. Robert W. Carter, co-chairman of Bicentennial and American Heritage attended as a non-voting representative or "visitor."

It was with particular pleasure that the club representatives to the state convention were able to return home with the following awards: One hundred percent subscription to the Virignia Federation of Women's Clubs publication CLUB WOMAN; a Junior Point System's Award: First Place Award for Bicentennial and American Heritage; Third place Award for Crafts; and Mrs. Samuel R. Martin received a white ribbon for her entry of original crewel in the state arts and crafts contest.

The first place award in Bicentennial and American Heritage, the only first place award ever received on the state level by the Appomattox Junior Woman's Club, is now eligible for a National Award to be given at the Annual General Federation of Woman's Clubs Convention being held this year at the Washington Hilton Hotel June 8-12, 1975.

4-H DOG SHOW - JUNE 3

Don't forget that our Appomattox 4-H Dog Show will be Tuesday, June 3, beginning at 7 p.m. on the football field at the Appomattox Middle School. Any Appomattox 4-H'ers owning or caring for a dog may enter. All that you need to take part in the show is a dog, a collar, and a leash.

Each year Lawson Ford Company sponsors this show. Pictured is Mr. Dick Bland, Sales Manager, of Lawson Ford with one of the ten trophies that will be awarded at the show. Remember, your dog doesn't have to do tricks to be in the show. Bring your parents and join in the fun.

Luncheon Honors Miss Harvey

Mrs. Ben Harvey and Mrs. Grayden Pollard entertained with a luncheon of bridal appointment Thursday, May 23, at The Columns, honoring Miss Becky Harvey.

Miss Harvey's marriage to Denny Throckmorton took place Saturday, May 24, in Appomattox Court House Presbyterian Church.

Among guests present for the luncheon were Mrs. Clifford Harvey, mother of the bride; Miss Sally Harvey, her sister's maid of honor; Mrs. J. D. Throckmorton, mother of the groom; Mrs. Lillian Harvey, grandmother of the bride; Miss Lucy Martin, Mrs. Marvin Goin and Miss Judy Agnew, attendants of the bride.

Shower Honors Bride-Elect

Miss Nancy Winston was honored Saturday evening, April 26, 1975, with a bridal shower given in the Fellowship Hall of Hebron Baptist Church.

Hostesses for the shower were Mrs. Tom Davidson, Miss Becky Davidson, and Miss Mary Davidson, all of Appomattox.

The marriage of Miss Winston to Gary Wayne Thomas will take place at 4 o'clock the afternoon of June 14 in Hebron Baptist Church.

Guests attending the shower included Mrs. Robert Winston, mother of the bride, Mrs. L. D. Thomas, mother of the groom, Mrs. Beverly W. Phelps and Miss Carolyn Winston, both sisters of the bride, and Mrs. W. R. Foster, of Lynchburg, sister of the groom.

Appomattox was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Marvin C. Goin of Hampden-Sydney, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Lucy Martin of Appomattox and Miss Betty Agnew of Burkeville.

Mr. Throckmorton was his son's best man and ushers were Paul D. Harvey, brother of the bride, David A. Harvey, brother of the bride, both of Appomattox; Marvin C. Goin of Hampden, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Robert M. Chambers of Farmville and Robert M. Evans of Richmond.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Harvey entertained with a reception at the church fellowship hall.

The bride is a graduate of Longwood College and the bridegroom is a graduate of Hampden-Sydney College.

After a southern wedding trip the couple will live in Covington, Virginia.

MRS. CHARLES PRESTON HACKETT
the former Miss Linda Faye Tyler

Vows Exchanged

The marriage of Miss Linda Faye Tyler to Charles Preston Hackett took place Saturday evening, May 17 at 6:00 at the Goldmine Pentecostal Holiness Church, Dillwyn, Va.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ernest Tyler and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hampton Hackett, Jr., all of Dillwyn.

Rev. Bill Terry officiated in the double ring ceremony. Rev. Oscar Bryant and Rev. Rickey Hackett also assisted in the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of silk organza and peau de soie lace over peau de soie. The empire bodice was finished with a high Victorian neckline and long bishop sleeves. Bands of lace formed cuffs on the sleeves and encircled the neckline. Bands of lace cascade were down the front of her dress, the hemline was finished in lace and a ruffle of self fabric. From a soft double organza bow at the high rise waist flowed a full circular chapel train edged in lace.

Her veil was an elbow length mantella of imported illusion, edged with lace. She carried a white lace bride's Bible with a white orchid and daisy streamers.

Mrs. Shirley Dunkum of Dillwyn, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Bobby Reaves of Lynchburg, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Wanda Nichols of Richmond, cousin of the bride.

Mr. Hackett was his son's best man. Ushers were Johnny Tyler of Dillwyn, brother of the bride, Danny Hackett, Buddy Hackett, both of Dillwyn, and Bruce Hackett of Appomattox, brothers of the bridegroom. Darrelle Bryant of Appomattox, nephew of the groom, was ringbearer.

Miss Michelle Dunkum of Dillwyn, niece of the bride, Miss Kimberly Reaves of Lynchburg and Miss Angela Hackett, niece of the groom were flower girls.

Mrs. Knowne Whorley of Dillwyn, provided a program of nuptial music. Mrs. Helen Talbert was pianist.

A reception was given by the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony at the Bank of Buckingham Social Hall.

After a southern wedding trip the couple will make there home in Dillwyn.
